SENATE BILL No. 528

A BILL FOR AN ACT concerning courts and court officers.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

1       SECTION 1. [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2003] (a) As used in this
2       SECTION, "food stamp eligible individual" refers to an individual
3       who meets all the following requirements:

4               (1) The individual is a resident of a county having a
5               population of more than three hundred thousand (300,000)
6               but less than four hundred thousand (400,000).

7               (2) The individual was convicted of an offense under IC 35-48
8               (controlled substances) for conduct occurring after August 22,
9               1996.

10              (3) Except for 21 U.S.C. 862a(a), the individual meets the 11              federal and Indiana food stamp program requirements.

12              (4) The individual is successfully participating in a reentry
13              court program.

14       (b) As used in this SECTION, "reentry court program" refers
15       to a program that meets the following requirements:

16              (1) A court in a county having a population of more than three
17              hundred thousand (300,000) but less than four hundred 18              thousand (400,000) has established and administers the program.

(2) The program is designed to supervise and provide services to an individual who was previously incarcerated by the department of correction in order to increase the likelihood that the individual will:

(A) become self-sufficient; and

(B) not commit additional crimes.

(c) As used in this SECTION, "TANF " refers to the federal Temporary Assistance for Needy Families program.

(d) As used in this SECTION, "TANF eligible individual" refers to an individual who meets all the following requirements:

(1) The individual is a resident of a county having a population of more than three hundred thousand (300,000) but less than four hundred thousand (400,000).

(2) The individual was convicted of an offense under IC 35-48 (controlled substances) for conduct occurring after August 22, 1996.

(3) Except for 21 U.S.C. 862a(a), the individual meets the federal and Indiana TANF program requirements.

(4) The individual is successfully participating in a reentry court program.

(e) Until June 30, 2005, and in accordance with 21 U.S.C. 862a(d)(1) and this SECTION, the state elects to opt out of the application of 21 U.S.C. 862a(a) for individuals participating in the reentry court program.

(f) If ordered by a court, a food stamp eligible individual may receive food stamps for twelve (12) months. A court may extend the period for an additional twelve (12) months.

(g) If ordered by a court, a TANF eligible individual may receive TANF benefits for up to twenty-four (24) months.

(h) Notwithstanding subsections (f) and (g), a food stamp eligible individual and a TANF eligible individual may not receive food stamp or TANF benefits after June 30, 2005.

(i) A court may modify or revoke an order issued under this SECTION concerning a food stamp eligible individual or a TANF eligible individual at any time.

(j) This SECTION expires July 1, 2005.
